

The Cell Phone number should be able to be carried from one carrier to the other if you switch services. We should not be locked into changing numbers if we must go for better prices and minutes with someone else.